provide himself with a sufficient number of ticket books with counterfoils and these books should be made available for inspection by the officers on Jatra duty not below the rank of a Revenue Inspector.

3. The person whose bid is (finally accepted) highest should deposit one-fourth of the amount at once. In default of payment of the deposit immediately after the close of the sale, a resale will be conducted and he will be made responsible for any loss by such resale but will not be entitled to any increase that may result by such resale. The deposit made by him or such portion as the Deputy Commissioner thinks fit shall be forfeited to Government. The rest of the money should be paid to the Treasury within seven days after the sale, if the seventh day is a general holiday, within the next working day, failing which a re-auction will be held at the risk of the bidder.

4. The sale will be subject to the confirmation of the Deputy Commissioner.

5. An appeal against the Deputy Commissioner's order confirming the sale will lie to the Muzrai Commissioner within 15 days after the sale is confirmed by the Deputy Commissioner.

6. The sale conducting officer is not bound to accept any bid offered after the close of the sale.

7. The sale purchaser of the manure will have no right to collect manure in Hiduvali lands.

8. The contractor should deposit 200 free tickets with the Amildar for distribution among devotees who bring things in cart for charitable purposes as "Aravatige, etc.," and to raiyats who repair the temple and render services in the temple during Jatras.

9. The contractor shall not be entitled to any remission of the contract amount or to any compensation on account of any cause whatever.

10. The contractor should make his own arrangements for the collection work.

11. The contractor and his employees shall always behave courteously towards the public and shall not harass them or give them trouble of any kind.
